PHILIP OLIVER, Esq;

MY LORD,

AS your Lordship was pleased, a few Days ago, at the Castle, and in the Presence of several Persons of Distinction, to acknowledge yourself the Author of A Letter from a Clergyman of the Diocese of Cork, to his Friend in Dublin; relating the Conduct of the Bishop of Cork in the Degradation of Mr. Dallas.

And as there are many Facts in the said Pamphlet most grossly misrepresented, and which are set in their true Light by Philadelphicus, in his Second Letter, I take this Opportunity of addressing your Lordship, and the Publick in Print, and of assuring the World, that the several Facts in the said and Letter, wherein my Name is mentioned, are Fair and Honestly set forth. I am my LORD, with all due Respect,

Second

 Sir,

Your LORDSHIP's most Obedient,

*To the Rt. Rev. JEMMET,
 Bishop of Cork and Ross,*

Humble Servant,

PHIL. OLIVER

S. And that the World may be convinced I am not the only Person who hath been injured by the false Representation of Facts in your LORDSHIP's Pamphlet, I take this Opportunity of publishing the following Declaration which was transmitted to me from Cork.

WHEREAS there are several Paragraphs in a printed Letter (Page 29, 30, 31,) from a Clergyman of the Diocese of Cork to his Friend in Dublin, relating to the Conduct of the Bishop of Cork in the Degradation of Mr. Dallas, and reflecting on the Character of the Vicar General of the Diocese, as he apprehends.—Now this is to inform the Publick, that the Assertions in said Pages relating to the Conduct of the Vicar General, contain many Falshoods, and the Conversation between the Bishop and the Vicar General is very Misrepresented. I do therefore think myself obliged to say thus much in Vindication of his Character: But as the Case is now depending in a Court of Law, where I apprehend I may be call'd upon in a legal manner to give my Evidence, I do not think myself at Liberty to give at present a particular Account of what happened on that Occasion.
